

ABOUT CASCADE CONDUCTING

With the motto of "Excellence through Equity," Cascade Conducting is dedicated to bringing world-class musical education to talented and diverse musicians from the United States and around the world. Conceived by Paula Madrigal, Teo Benson, and Sarah Ioannides in 2017, Cascade Conducting is officially a program of Orquesta Northwest, a 501(c)3 non-profit.

With a focus on engaging talented BIPOC (Black, Indigenous, People of Color) musicians who may not have access to traditional conducting opportunities, Cascade Conducting has awarded more than $40,000 to exceptional young conducting students from a broad range of cultures and experience since 2018.

A unique pedagogical philosophy shaped by Maestra Ioannides underlies the mission for Cascade Conducting, as it seeks to provide a unique map for navigating the world of music and conducting by finding a balance between the demands of the business and the preservation of one's individual artistry as necessary to achieve excellence.

The Cascade Conducting mission has been further championed by Symphony Tacoma Voices Music Director Dr. Geoffrey Boers with the exciting addition of his Choral Masterclass in 2022. Boers works to provide students with gestural and pedagogical language to develop vocal artists of increasingly diverse cultures, backgrounds, and experiences. In addition, with assistance by Dr. Tiffany Walker, the conductors are exploring identity and leadership from a BIPOC perspective.
